

FOR SOLDIERS

NOTABLE SOCIAL EVENT GIVEN
BY MRS. RICHARDSON FOR
C. A. BOYS

The big garden party and tennis court dance given by Mrs. Ella Richardson on the evening of July 4 in honor of the boys of Companies C and D of the Coast Artillery now stationed on the rifle range here was one of the biggest and happiest of recent social affairs. The boys of Companies A and B were so appreciative of everything that was done to entertain them while they were in Glendale and responded so heartily to Mrs. Richardson's invitation to make her home theirs that she felt amply repaid for any extra effort on her part and determined to make the new crowd of boys feel at home here also, so very elaborate preparations were made for Thursday night's affair.

A number of men and women who are friends of Mrs. Richardson assisted her in entertaining her young guests and the young ladies of her circle were present to make the evening pleasant for the boys. Between two and three hundred were present, all of whom were greeted by the hostess. Dancing was enjoyed on the tennis court, the assistant hostesses being everywhere present to see that no guest was being neglected. After all had been welcomed and introductions were over, the entire company joined in singing "The Star-Spangled Banner," the "Marseillaise" and "America."

Earl B. Plank of Pasadena, who is a Y. M. C. A. worker and who has charge of the Friday Morning club dances given for men in uniform, took charge of the dancing and made himself generally useful. He was everywhere at once and made himself indispensable to the hostess as well as adding very much to the pleasure of the guests.

Between the dances a splendid program was given on a platform arranged for the purpose out of doors. Some of the children of the Pearl Keller school gave charming exhibition dances. Elizabeth and Beatrice Turner appeared in a song and dance and a reading, "Keep Your Eye on Sammie Wilson." Dorothy Dutton charmingly executed a three step and Merna and Merle Kahler, the little professionals, did some delightful stunts. Miss Ora Lockhart gave two whistling solos in her usual birdlike manner.

Francis J. W. Henry, Glendale's own Harry Lauder, gave some of his inimitable impersonations of the famous comedian that kept his audience screaming.

Little Miss Shirley Chase gave readings that were very appropriate to the occasion and pleased the soldier boys immensely.

Miss Cora Louise Butterfield gave two readings.

Mrs. L. J. Selby, noted soloist of Los Angeles, appeared and urged the men in uniform to take advantage of the privileges extended by the Friday Morning club to soldiers and sailors to attend the dances on Saturday afternoons from three to six.

At eleven o'clock the men in uniform secured partners for the supper dance and marched around the grounds, meeting the hostesses where tables had been spread. Refreshments were served cafeteria style and all returned to the tennis court. During the supper, Mrs. Kemper Campbell spoke briefly, bringing a message to the boys which they heartily appreciated and enjoyed.

Before departing all met in the house once more and sang together some of the old and dearly loved songs. As they bade their hostess good night the soldiers expressed their heartfelt appreciation of her kindness to them and the knowledge that she was helping these boys was in part compensation for the absence of her two boys, who are in the service and are far from home. The boys of Companies C and D say when the war is over they are going to make Glendale the capital of the United States. The guests were not alone in expressing their happiness for the hostess and her assistants said they deemed it a pleasure to be able to entertain such a splendid bunch of fellows, including Captain Stewart. All are grateful to those who brought the boys from the rifle range in their machines and returned them again after the party.

FUNERAL SERVICES

Funeral services over the remains of Elder Charles F. Marvin will be held Saturday afternoon at three o'clock at the Jewel City parlors. Interment will be made in the Forest Lawn Memorial Park. Elder M. M. Hare, President of the Southern California Conference of Seventh-Day Adventists, will conduct the services, assisted by other pastors.

REPUBLICANS MEET

CONDEMN ANTI-WAR RECORD OF
CONGRESSMAN CHARLES
H. RANDALL

Republicans of the 69th Congressional District residing in the territory of Alhambra, Monrovia and South Pasadena held a get-together meeting in the Woman's Club House, Alhambra, Wednesday, to which meeting the Republican Congressional candidates were invited.

Resolutions as follows were adopted:

Whereas, the paramount purpose of the American people is to fight to a decisive victory the righteous war now waging for the perpetuation of human liberty;

Whereas, that war can be won only by the aid of a loyal and patriotic Congress, each member of which shall at all times unselfishly, constructively and without partisan bias, assist the Government in this gigantic and sacred undertaking;

Now Therefore, Be It Resolved, by the Republicans of the 9th Assembly District in mass meeting assembled, that we deprecate and condemn the action of Charles H. Randall, Representative of the 9th Congressional District of California, in voting against the declaration of a state of war with the Imperial German Government, after Germany had, without provocation, repeatedly and ruthlessly made war upon the United States of America by firing upon and destroying American ships and by killing American citizens upon the high seas; we deprecate and condemn his action in opposing the truly democratic selective draft law at the time when, and in a cause for which, service should be equal and without discrimination; we deprecate and condemn his attempt to defeat legislation authorizing an increase in the military establishment of the United States when an international crisis, national safety and common sanity demanded nothing less; and we condemn and denounce his willingness to stigmatize our Country and traduce its honorable purposes and achievements by his public contention that the Spanish-American war was a dishonorable war, for the purpose of justifying his unpatriotic position in the most critical hour of our national life.

And Be It Further Resolved, that we renew our pledge of allegiance to our Republic, its flag, the principles for which it stands and the great cause of Democracy for which we are now fighting; and that we pledge to support for Congress in the primaries and at the election of 1918, only such candidates as shall, by their previous conduct as well as by their present protestations, qualify as being men who will unselfishly, unreservedly and uninfluenced by partisan allegiance, devote all their energies to the successful conduct and victorious conclusion of this holy war.

The candidates present were Mushet, Flowers, Odell and Bryant. Each candidate was given 15 minutes in which to outline his platform.

ENTERTAIN SOLDIERS

Seven soldier boys were given a pleasant evening Wednesday night at the home of Mrs. Nanno Woods, 1222 Milford street, who was assisted in receiving by Mesdames Marie Oliver and Johanna Edwards.

A brief program was given by the hostess and her daughters, the Misses Dorothy and Kathleen Woods giving the "Artist and Butterfly" dance, followed by solo dances, Miss Kathleen executing Cupid's Gavotte, and Miss Dorothy Woods giving a tambourine dance. All of these numbers were fancy costume dances. Mrs. Nanno Woods, in one of her effective Irish costumes, gave some amusing Irish songs. Light refreshments were served in the beautiful fernery. The guest list included:

Private Guy Tubbs of Idaho Falls, Idaho.
Private Max Fage, Whittier, Cal.
Private Walter Smith, Los Angeles.
Private Wesley Tucker, Frankfort, Kansas.

Private J. Freeman Rose, Republic, Mo.

Private Thomas A. Whitworth, St. Louis, Mo.

Private C. Carner, Los Angeles.

Misses Marie Oliver, Hazel Wyzel, Eunice Peart, Doris Ingledue, Elizabeth Webb, Dorothy and Kathleen Woods.

Sergeant Loren Jones, formerly of this city, now in Company 7, Coast Artillery, was a guest in the Woods family Independence Day.

WEATHER FORECAST—Fair tonight and Saturday. Cloudy along the coast. Light westerly winds.

FOOD BUSINESS RETURNS 2183 PER CENT

FURTHER DATA ON PROFITEERING BY AMERICAN CORPORATIONS IN 1917 IS GIVEN TO SENATE

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
WASHINGTON, July 5.—Excess profits as high as 2183 per cent were made by some businesses in 1917, a treasury report submitted to the Senate today shows. The report is partially an answer to the Borah resolution asking data on profiteering. A food dealer made the 2183 per cent profit. Next came a liquor dealer with a 122 per cent profit. Another liquor dealer capitalized at $100,000 made 152 per cent. A cold storage company capitalized at $10,000 exceeded its 1916 profits by 472 per cent. In the dairy business the excess profits ranged from nothing to 182 per cent. In contracting, from nothing to 596 per cent. These figures are to be supplemented by further data as soon as it is prepared and a list of all businesses making a profit of more than 15 per cent in 1917 will be submitted. The report is the second section of a round-up of profiteers and is to be used as evidence by Congress in framing a war tax bill.

SCHUIDEMANN REPLIES TO CRITICS

SAYS HIS PARTY WILL CO-OPERATE WITH GOVERNMENT ONLY WHEN PEACE SITUATION IS CLARIFIED

(Special Service to Glendale Evening News)
AMSTERDAM, July 5.—Philip Scheidemann, replying in the Reichstag to the criticisms of his opposition to government measures said: "The Socialists will co-operate with the government only if the peace situation is clarified. The exasperation of the masses has reached its highest point. The only cry is 'End the war but with honor.' The greatest military victory by itself will not bring peace, only an amistice." Scheidemann charged that the German press was officially instructed how to comment on Von Kuehlmann's speech.

CHILDREN CELEBRATE

CONTESTS AND SPEECHES ENJOYED ON INTERMEDIATE GROUNDS

The 4th of July celebration given under the auspices of the Glendale Federation Parent-Teacher Association on the grounds of the Intermediate school was enjoyed by all present. Supervisor R. D. White, Chairman of Program, opened with the remark that the 4th of July of 1918 was even more momentous than that of 1776, owing to the World War. He then introduced Mrs. Wm. Herman West, who led the audience in singing "America."

A vocal solo, "My Own United States," was given splendidly by Victor W. Daniels.

The speaker of the afternoon, F. McD. Spencer, was then introduced and spoke forcefully of the birth of the United States and its present war crisis and said in part: "This is a holy war for the purposes on which this nation was founded and we must all be soldiers, with or without uniform, and each must furnish motive power to weld ourselves into one great mass for united service."

Mr. White then called upon Dr. Jessie A. Russell, whom he introduced as president of the California State Congress of Mothers and Parent-Teacher Associations. Dr. Russell said she would speak for the boy and girl present and did so, much to the pleasure of the entire audience. One statement made by her was that the children of California have gone on record as having done more juvenile war work in proportion than had the children of any other state in the Union. The salute to the flag was given and the "Star-Spangled Banner" sung by all present. A contribution was then taken in order to secure funds with which to purchase material to make game tables for the recreation of soldiers in Y. M. C. A. huts.

In a prettily decorated booth, Mrs. I. S. Levitt, assisted by Mrs. Adelaide Imler, Mrs. H. W. Yarik, Mrs. A. R. Chappell and Mrs. Ray Phillips, dispensed orangeade, ice cream, sandwiches, etc., while Mr. Harkness, instructor of manual training, started the athletic events in which almost all present took part. Prizes were won by Marjorie Yarik, Adah Storm, Rebecca Kline, Frances Glassburne, Miss Sadie Gordon, Mrs. F. S. Dupuy, Roy Jefferson, George Jockin, Charles Fishel, Foster Begg, George Luey, Carrol Springer, Robert Hess, Aram Johnson, Mr. Conwell and Mr. White.

Press Secretary.

GOES TO ENDEAVOR CONVENTION

Rev. W. E. Edmonds, Pastor of the Glendale Presbyterian Church, leaves tonight (Friday) for Sacramento, where on Sunday night he will address the State Christian Endeavor Convention. From Sacramento he will go to Camp Fremont, where he will speak to the soldiers next Tuesday. Prof. H. W. Kellogg of Occidental College will occupy his pulpit during his absence. Mr. Edmonds states that Long Beach is making a bid for the State Christian Endeavor Convention next year, with good prospects of securing it.

EARLY CLOSING IN LOS ANGELES

For the past twenty years the shoe salesmen of Los Angeles have been endeavoring to persuade the shoe dealers of Los Angeles to close their stores at six p. m. on Saturdays. They have at last succeeded in their attempt and Saturday, July 6th, will witness the farewell of the old-fashioned late-hour shopping. Mr. Ward, the present manager of Horton's Glendale shoe store, who was the first vice-president of the shoe salesmen's association, is in a large measure responsible for the new hours as he has been untiring in his efforts in this direction. Glendale merchants will no doubt profit in some measure by the early closing of Los Angeles stores, but they are also considering the question of closing their stores at 9 p. m. instead of 10 as heretofore.

WORK OR FIGHT REVIEW

NOTICES SENT TO MEN IN DEFERRED CLASSES RETURNABLE SATURDAY

Chairman Lanterman and members Mattison B. Jones and F. L. Muhleman of the local Exemption Board were in session Wednesday morning reviewing Questionnaires with a view to the reclassification of registrants in deferred classes. In that connection Mr. Lanterman reported that the Board had received information from private citizens in regard to two registrants for which they felt very grateful as it enabled them to place the men where they properly belong, in Class 1. He said further:

"The Board will consider itself under great obligations if citizens who have knowledge of registrants whose status has changed since their Questionnaires were filed, will convey such knowledge to the Board because it wants to keep its records up to date. The country needs soldiers and we do not want to call on the deferred classes as long as there are registrants in Class 1 who are not now in service. We feel it is the duty of every public-spirited citizen to give information which will lead us to properly classify registrants. This information will be considered strictly private."

Wednesday morning the Board devoted itself to the reclassifying of men liable to service under the "Work or Fight" ruling. Notices are now being sent out to be returned Saturday with proof of the occupation of the registrant. Those who are found not to be in productive or essential occupations will be given time in which to secure such an occupation and if within a reasonable time (to be determined by the Board) such an occupation is not found, the classification will be changed and the registrant will be mustered into service if found physically fit. The government insists that every registrant be employed in some branch of industrial or army service.

THE CONGRESSMAN QUESTION

The editor of the Evening News was present at the Republican get-together meeting held in Alhambra Wednesday evening. The meeting was called for the purpose of eliminating some of the candidates from the race for nomination at the primaries in the 69th Congressional District. Men who have the country's best interests at heart were present at the meeting and emphatically urged that the people of the district wake up to the importance of electing a competent man to Congress this year.

During the next session of Congress great National questions will be up for settlement and it was the opinion of those present that a man is needed in Congress from this district who is entirely safe in supporting war measures—a man who has been in favor of the United States being prepared to meet the enemy wherever he may be found.

The present Congressman, Chas. H. Randall, is all right on prohibition measures and a thousand praises to him for that, but he has in the opinion of those present at Wednesday evening's meeting, fallen short in supporting the administration in urgent war measures.

Flowers of Monrovia and Odell of Pasadena seemed to come up to the requirements of those present at the meeting. These gentlemen are 100 per cent right on war measures and they are all right on the temperance question. Which one of these two gentlemen will stand for elimination is the question up for consideration.

Every locality should become interested in the selection of the right kind of man for Congress. It is the people's job to make the selection and it should not be left to politicians.

GLENDALE, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, JULY 5, 1918

SPEECH OF PRESIDENT WILSON AT MOUNT VERNON ON JULY FOURTH

By ROBERT J. BENDER
(United Press Staff Correspondent)

President Wilson yesterday pledged the United States to fight on against the Teuton menace until a "final settlement" is achieved. There can be "no compromise," he said. "No half-way decision would be tolerable."

Before a notable international gathering at the tomb of Washington, he spoke "proudly and with confident hope" for the liberation of the nations afflicted by the "blinded rulers" of Prussia.

He defined the ends to which, not America alone, but "the associated peoples of the world" are fighting and declared for a knock-out of "every arbitrary power anywhere that can, of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world."

The text of his address follows:
"Gentlemen of the diplomatic corps and my fellow citizens:

"I am happy to draw apart with you this quiet place of old counsel in order to speak a little of the meaning of this day of our nation's independence. The place seems very still and remote. It is as serene and untouched by the hurry of the world as it was in those great days long ago when General Washington was here and held leisurely conference with the men who were to be associated with him in the creation of a nation. From these gentle slopes they looked out upon the world and saw it whole, saw it with the light of the future upon it, saw it with modern eyes that turned away from a past which men of liberated spirits could no longer endure. It is for that reason that we cannot feel, even here, in the immediate presence of this sacred tomb, that this is a place of death. It was a place of achievement. A great promise that was meant for all mankind, was here given plan and reality. The associations by which we are here surrounded are the inspiring associations of that noble death which is only a glorious consummation. From this green hillside, we also ought to be able to see with comprehending eyes the world that lies about us and should conceive anew the purposes that must set men free.

"It is significant—significant of their own character and purpose and of the influences they were setting afoot—that Washington and his associates, like the barons at Runnymede, spoke and acted, not for a class, but for a people. It has been left for us to see to it that it shall be understood that they spoke and acted, not for a single people only, but for all mankind. They were thinking, not of themselves, and of the material interests which centered in the little groups of landholders and merchants and men of affairs with whom they were accustomed to act, in Virginia and the colonies to the north and south of here, but of a people who wished to be done with classes and special interests and the authority of men whom they had not themselves chosen to rule over them. They entertained no private purpose, desired no peculiar privileges. They were consciously planning that men of every class should be free and America a place to which men out of every nation might resort who wished to share with them the rights and privileges of free men. And we take our cue from them—do we not? We intend what they intended. We here in America believe our participation in this present war to be only the fruitage of what they planted. Our case differs from theirs only in this—that it is our inestimable privilege to concert with men out of every nation what shall make not only the liberties of America secure, but the liberties of every other people as well. We are happy in the thought that we are permitted to do what they would have done had they been in our place. There must now be settled once for all what was settled for America in the great age upon whose inspiration we draw today. This is surely a fitting place from which calmly to look out upon our task, that we may fortify our spirits for its accomplishments.

"And this is the appropriate place from which to avow, alike to the friends who look on and to the friends with whom we have the happiness to be associated in action, the faith and purpose with which we all act.

"This then is our conception of the great struggle in which we are engaged. The plot is written plain upon every scene and every act of the supreme tragedy. On the one hand stand the peoples of the world—not only the peoples actually engaged, but many others also who suffer under mastery but cannot act, peoples of many races, and in every part of the world—the people of stricken Russia still, among the rest, though they are for the moment unorganized and helpless. Opposed to them, masters of many armies, stand an isolated, friendless group of governments who speak no common purpose but only selfish ambitions of their own by which none can profit but themselves, and whose peoples are fuel in their hands. The governments which fear their people and yet are for the time their sovereign lords, making every choice for them and disposing of their lives and fortunes as they will, as well as of the lives and fortunes of every people who fall under their power—governments clothed with the strange trappings and the primitive authority of an age that is altogether alien and hostile to their own. The past and the present are in deadly grapple and the peoples of the world are being done to death between them.

"There can be but one issue. The settlement must be final. There can be no compromise. No half-way decision would be tolerable. No half-way decision is conceivable. These are the ends for which the associated peoples of the world are fighting and which must be conceded them before there can be peace.

"1—The destruction of every arbitrary power anywhere that can separately, secretly, and of its single choice, disturb the peace of the world; or, if cannot be presently destroyed, at the least its reduction to virtual impotence.

"2—The settlement of every question whether of territory, of sovereignty of economic arrangement, or of political relationship, upon the basis of the free acceptance of that settlement by the people immediately concerned and not upon the basis of the material interests or advantage of another nation or people which may desire a different settlement for the sake of its own interior influence or mastery.

"3—The consent of all nations to be governed in their conduct towards each other by the same principles of honor and of respect for the common law of civilized society that govern the individual citizens of all modern states in their relations with one another to the end that promises and covenants may be sacredly observed, no private plots or conspiracies hatched, no selfish injuries wrought with impunity, and a mutual trust established upon the handsome foundation of a mutual respect for right.

"4—The establishment of an organization of peace which shall make it certain that the combined power of free nations will check every invasion of right and serve to make peace and justice the more secure by affording a definite tribunal of opinion to which all must submit and by which every international readjustment that cannot be amicably agreed upon by the peoples directly concerned shall be sanctioned.

"These great objects can be put into a single sentence. What we seek is the reign of law, based upon the consent of the governed and sustained by the organized opinion of mankind.

"These great ends cannot be achieved by debating and seeking to reconcile and accommodate what statesman may wish, with their projects for balances of power and of national opportunity. They can be realized only by the determination of what the thinking people of the world desire, with their longing hope for justice and for social freedom and opportunity.

"I can fancy that the air of this place carries the accents of such principles with a peculiar kindness. Here were started forces which the great nation against which they were primarily directed at first regarded as a revolt against its rightful authority but which has long since seen to have been a step in the liberation of its own people as well as the people of the United States; and I stand here now to speak—speak proudly and with confident hope—of the spread of this revolt, this liberation, to the great stage of the world itself. The blinded rulers of Prussia have roused forces they know little of—forces which, once roused, can never be crushed to earth again for they have at their heart an inspiration and a purpose which are deathless and of the very stuff of triumph.

GERMAN PROPAGANDA

FATHER O'NEILL DIRECTS ATTENTION TO LIES CIRCULATED BY GERMAN AGENTS

In the Ladies' Home Journal for July is an important article entitled "They Say but They Lie," which is published as an authoritative announcement for the Government of the United States by the Committee on Public Information, the Secretary of State, Secretary of War, Secretary of the Navy and George Creel, Chairman.

It recites a variety of lies which have been circulated in this country and abroad by German propagandists. This paper has received a copy of that issue on which paragraphs are marked which refer to the Roman Catholic Church and the propaganda used to influence its members by German agents, together with the following communication:

Holy Family Rectory
311 West Lomita Avenue
Glendale, Cal.
July 5, 1918.

Editor, Glendale Evening News:
May I ask you to publish the following item from "Ladies' Home Journal" for July.

JAMES S. O'NEILL.

Pastor Holy Family Catholic Church.
The marked paragraphs follow:

"The mails have been full of another deceit in the shape of a printed 'Blood Oath of Knights of Columbus.' It purports to be a solemn vow taken by the Roman Catholics to 'make and wage relentless war secretly and openly against all heretics, Protestants and Masons' and 'to burn, hang, waste, boil, flay, strangle and bury alive these infamous heretics.' It is given as printed from the Congressional Record, Sixty-Second Congress, Third Session, Volume 49, Part 4, pp. 3216-17, February 15, 1913, and it does indeed appear in the Congressional Record for that date but only because it was produced in an election contest and denounced before Congress as an abominable forgery by the candidate against whom it was circulated.

"An agent caught passing around printed copies of this 'oath' in New Jersey has been arrested and imprisoned, but the circulation of it, through the mails, anonymously, still continues. It is German propaganda.

"It is German propaganda of the sort that is being used in all the Allied countries by German agents who seek to arouse any sort of religious dissension in order to divide a people united in opposition to Germany. Among American Protestants they circulate tales of Roman Catholic treachery, such as the amazing rumor that President Wilson's secretary had been shot for treason.

"Among the Roman Catholics they pass out accounts of discrimination against Roman Catholic soldiers by Red Cross officials, of protests by Masonic orders against allowing the Knights of Columbus to build recreation huts in the camps, or persecutions of Roman Catholics by the British, French and Italian governments.

"They use similar stories among the American Jews. These falsehoods report names and dates and places most convincingly, and they are given credence in the gossip of sewing circles and afternoon teas."

DAILY OR NO DAILY

What think ye of the chances for existence of the Evening News when a daily newspaper of the magnitude of the Los Angeles Daily Tribune ceases to be published, and when a daily paper in Santa Ana that had been published for many years closes its doors and quits business, and when Alhambra and South Pasadena fall short in supporting daily papers and after four years of trials and tribulations they turn back to the weekly plan?

If Glendale's daily newspaper continues it must have the general support of business institutions. The question is, do you want a daily paper? Is it a good thing for the city? If it is, say so by giving the paper support in every way possible. When the time comes, if it does come, for dropping the daily, it will be done quickly and without any lengthy notice. However, the present publisher is not an easy quitter and everybody will be given a chance to make good before the day of discontinuance comes. Remember, the circulation part is all right with the Evening News. It is the advertising that is short.

A MOTHER OF PATRIOTS

From Mrs. Carrie E. Watling of this city, now at Balboa, Cal., the following letter has been received concerning her sons in service: "You asked me to let you know some times of my sons in service.

Lieut. F. E. Watling is now stationed at Washington, D. C. John H. Watling at Evac. Hospital No. 20, Camp Grant, Rockford, Ill., while Robert is the proud possessor of a golden stripe for six months' service in France in the Signal Service, now assistant mechanic. Each seems well and happy in his work and those who are here are anxious to get into active service.

Very sincerely,

MRS. CARRIE E. WATLING.

Miss Rhea Norma Bahrenburg of Bakersfield is spending the summer with her grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. J. E. Bahrenburg and other relatives.

MILITARY BALL TONIGHT

As heretofore announced, a military ball will be given this evening at the Masonic Temple by Masonic bodies of Glendale, consisting of the Blue Lodge, Royal Arch Chapter, the Glen Eyrie Chapter of the Eastern Star and the Knights Templar. This will be in honor of the officers and men of Companies C and D of the Coast Artillery now encamped at the rifle range. As the men will be late in leaving camp, the grand march will not take place until 9 o'clock. It will be led by Captain Stewart, Senior Officer, and Miss Della Marie Echols, Worthy Matron of the Eastern Star. This will be the last complimentary function for these men, as they will leave Saturday and it is the expectation they will soon be sent forward to the French front. It is hoped therefore that all members of the organizations named will combine to make it a grand success and give the boys a fine sendoff.

P-T. A. CONFERENCE

A departmental conference was held July 3d by the officers of the Glendale Federation of Parent-Teacher Associations in the Library of the Intermediate school Wednesday morning at ten o'clock. Owing to the absence of the president, Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, Mrs. C. A. Andersen, vice-president, conducted the meeting. Dr. Jessie Russell, president of the State Federation, gave a talk on departmental work.

A meeting was called for Wednesday, July 10th, at which time the office of president, made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Opal Greenwalt, will be filled.

I met Lawrence Dutton, who made the trip through Canada, here tonight. Weather fine and cool. My mail address is Care of 254 State St., Flushing. Best regards to all Glendale. E. WILL RICHARDSON.

A DELIGHTFUL PARTY

Last Tuesday evening the Young Men's class of the West Glendale Sunday School entertained the young ladies' class at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierson Hanning on Hawthorne street. The following were present: Mildred Singleton, Henrietta Somers, Louise Fambrough, Virginia Fambrough, Sibyl Munn, Louise Crandall, Marian Crandall, Ira Cleeland, William Jones, George Baxter, Norman Begg, Edgar Brown. EXCEED ALL OTHER YEARS Interest collections on state deposits for the fiscal year just past exceeded all previous records. State Treasurer Friend W. Richardson announced today that the year's collections amounted to $317,886.00 and were the greatest in the history of the state. The amount exceeded the former year by over eighty thousand dollars. The state deposits amount to more than thirteen and one half million dollars and there is an active demand for state money by banks which are now bidding three per cent.

REPORTS QUIET FOURTH

Chief Herald of the Glendale police force reports an exceedingly quiet Fourth of July, with no accidents reported, no disturbances of any sort, no infringements of the law discovered by his department. The majority of Glendale people, according to the Chief, visited the beaches.

TUJUNGA

The entertainment given by the Red Cross Auxiliary on Saturday was a grand success and will net the ladies over $125. The hall was beautifully decorated and the supper served from the pergola. The program was carried out in an A No. 1 manner under the direction of Mrs. Jenkins, the chairman of the program committee. Mrs. Parcher, chairman of the Auxiliary, gave the amount of work done during the past year and the present thriving condition and interest in Red Cross work here. Madame Spelmeyer with her flag drill of twelve small girls and boys gave great satisfaction, each one doing his part with great precision. A song by Dr. Buck, "Joan of Arc," was well received and he responded to the encore with "Keep the Home Fires Burning," the audience joining in the chorus. Mrs. Nanno Woods of Glendale then recited three of her poems in her usual pleasing manner, then followed the selling of her leaflets containing six war poems, the money received (over $11) being donated to the Auxiliary. Three whistling solos with piano accompaniment by Miss Green of La Crescenta were enthusiastically enjoyed. Miss Clark also sang two fine selections. Then following the delight of the evening, when Don Wieman with his "gym" class entertained the audience for nearly an hour, interspersed by stunts by Mr. Wieman, that of diving through hoops, and a lighted torch exercise. Mr. Wieman has need to be proud of his boys, and we as a colony are proud of all of them. The chairs were then cleared from the floor and those who cared to dance occupied the floor and Miss Shults presided at the piano, the older and younger ones proceeded to the pergola and were served to cream and cake or coffee and cake by the ladies of the Auxiliary. A pair of very nice shoes were raffled off and J. S. Johnson held the lucky number, and as a 4-B was a size too small, put them up at auction, and they were knocked down to Mr. Spelmeyer for $4.50. This with the previous raffie brought the sale up to $7.50. Mr. Ashby acted as auctioneer. After the supper had been served, the cakes that remained were also auctioned off with much hilarity and all brought a good price. Otto Hauptman turned in to the Red Cross $140 worth of L. A. Investment stock. We thing Tujunga has done herself proud and shows that she is no slacker, either in money or work for her country.

Mrs. J. J. Ludke of San Diego was in Tujunga and attended the Red Cross entertainment on Saturday eve.

Mr. and Mrs. O'Rourke are staying on their ranch near Michigan avenue for a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. Wright and children will spend the Fourth and to the end of the week at the beach.

Mrs. Ludke will spend the week end with friends at Big Bear Lake.

Mrs. Woodruff returned the first of the week from Hynes, where she had been visiting with Mrs. Fischer.

The Red Cross sewing bee met on Friday with an attendance of about twenty. The consignment of work was finished ready to be returned. At the business meeting the announcement of the entertainment for Saturday evening and the picnic at Sunland on July 4th for the benefit of the chapter there was made. It is hoped that the ladies of Tujunga will not grow weary during the summer. Material is needed for patchwork for the Junior Red Cross. Any one having pieces is asked to send them in.

The Red Cross Benefit

Yes, that is the way we do things at Tujunga.

Perhaps you would understand if I told you we never do things half-hearted.

But always on a scale that is grand.

No matter what the occasion you will Find we are always to the fore, Willing to do our very best, willing And ready to do some more.

Our Red Cross band, could you see it, Would make you shout with joy. All the town is enrolled there, every man

And woman, every girl and boy.

We are all co-laborers in the vineyard Where right and freedom reign. And our one desire now is to help All those who suffer pain.

For our boys who have gone over the top

To suffer and maybe to die. That man's freedom may live forever And that wars come not nigh.

There are mother hearts here that are

So loyal, brave and true. They have given of their life's blood That the world might be made anew.

So they sew and pray for their ladies

Who are now so far away; They will work and wait patiently, Praying for their returning day.

We know the boys with such mothers Will do nothing ever to shame. For each one will fight on manfully To keep clean America's name.

That is just why the Red Cross benefit

Was a success so grand, And we thank all those most heartily Who stretched out a helping hand.

You see why we are proud of Tujunga.

If we are only a little town, We are all just showing our loyalty, We are not looking for renown. Elizabeth Morewood Shaner.

LA CRESCENTA

La Crescenta turned in over $2800 worth of pledges in the Thrift Stamp Drive. We are proud of La Crescenta.

The Red Cross tea at the home of Mrs. S. S. Thomas last Sunday was a splendid success despite the threatened showers and electrical disturbances. Among the artists who contributed to the afternoon's pleasures were Miss M. Hasse, piano soloist, the Misses Apple, vocalists, Mrs. Maimie Newman, composer, who played some of her own compositions, Clyde Mohler, George Varnum, vocalist, Miss Grace Grubb at the piano, Mrs. George Fusetot and Miss Margaret Johnson. The little daughters of Mr. Wm. de Mille sold boutonnières and the entire results for the afternoon's contributions, which amounted to $73, will go to the Red Cross. Over 150 guests were entertained and a thoroughly delightful time was enjoyed by all.

Mrs. C. E. Woolsey is spending a month at Sierra Madre.

Mrs. B. F. Miller has returned from her vacation hike back into the mountains from Switzer's camp.

The Red Cross activities are at a rest pending arrival of material ordered from San Francisco. Due notice will be given of the resumption of work in both Tuesday and Thursday classes.

Everybody that could went on a picnic on the Fourth.

Mrs. Miller has lost a male canary, which escaped from her aviary last week. He is an old bird, very tame and all yellow. She would be glad to hear of any one having him.

The Farm Bureau will meet Thursday, July 11, at La Canada schoolhouse at 8 p. m. This is a very important meeting. Mrs. Hazzard will be present and an organization of "The Women's Home Department" will be the topic of the evening. Everybody is invited to be present, particularly all women. Remember the date, July 11, 8 p. m., La Canada.

"OUR NATAL DAY"

(Air, "America")
By Samuel Parker
For this our natal day,
We grateful homage pay
To God above.
Who in mercy will provide,
And in wisdom guide,
All who will abide
In zone of His love.

Blest Heaven-born decree,
"All men are born equal, free,"
Thy bounds enlarge.
Bring in greater liberty,
World-wide democracy,
Mission, a whole world free,
Is now thy charge.

Hail, banner of the free,
Spread o'er both land and sea
Thy colors bright.
Let all the downcast gaze
And hope of better days,
Give them songs of praise
To freedom's light.

Old Glory, spread thy wings,
Until hope anew springs
Into faltering heart.
Make each year jubilee,
Let all the nations see,
Let the enslaved go free,
Despots depart.

ticularly all women. Remember the date, July 11, 8 p. m., La Canada.

Mr. and Mrs. Judd Thompson, who were left homeless and destitute after the fire, are located in San Diego and have written the following letter to their friends and neighbors who so generously came to their relief:

"To our La Crescenta friends and neighbors, one and all:

"We take this method of returning our heartiest appreciation to you for your extreme kindness to us in our hour of direst need. Some of you who so promptly came to our aid, left no name. Articles of clothing left with others for us were without tags and we can only voice our thanks in a general way to the whole Valley. We miss our home so much, the children are homesick for their chums and playmates, but we will try to build up friends and a social atmosphere around us here. If any of you ever come to San Diego, the latchstring is out and you will be most welcome to our home, such as it may be here. Once more permit us to reiterate our thanks to each and every one in the whole of La Crescenta Valley.

Yours very fondly,
MR. and MRS. JUDD THOMPSON.
1930 First Street, San Diego."

GET RID OF SOOT NOW

Soot is a waster. One one-hundredth inch of soot is as hard to heat through as ten inches of iron.

War economy of coal and money demands that the interiors of stoves and furnaces be cleaned.

Instant action on soot is needed. The clean-up should not be put off until fall. It should be begun now.

When fires are going regularly cleaning should be done every two weeks. The soot layer forms fast and the greatest amount of heat from the smallest amount of coal can be obtained only if soot is exterminated.

The householder who insists on a sootless policy will protect his pocketbook, his family, his fellow men and his country. Coal shortage threatens America this winter. Unless every user of coal is on his toes to prevent even the smallest fraction of waste, many persons may endure such suffering as comfortable America has never supposed possible.

Very truly yours,
ALBERT E. SCHWABACHER,
Federal Fuel Administrator for California.
